About the Instructors

PATSY KLINE is an experienced mandolin teacher and performer and has studied with many of the finest mandolinists in the world including Roland White, Butch Baldissari, Robin Bullock, and Emory Lester. She's lead mandolin workshops in Georgia, Pennsylvania, and Maryland, and has performed at the Steve Kaufman music camp and the Blue Ridge Mountains Arts Association.

JIM PITTMAN is a native of north Georgia and is in demand both as a lead and rhythm guitar player as well as a workshop instructor. Jim is renowned for his helpful teaching style and materials, and his workshops can assist intermediate to advanced guitar players with playing and practicing tips derived from years of practical experience. Jim has been influenced by the styles of Doc Watson and Norman Blake and has studied with some of the world's best flat pickers.
