What you get:

- ▶ Participation is limited to 10 participants for a better instructor participant ratio!
- ▶ A beautiful custom made Powder Horn
- ▶ The cost of the class is less than what you would expect to pay for a completed horn purchased from a professional Horner.
- ▶ Knowledge to last a lifetime!

The Horn:

- ▶ The powder horn for the class is a common horn of the late 1700s or early 1800s. The base is a turned wooden plug with iron nails. The spout is filled with a fiddle plug stopper.
- ▶ The scrimshawing is basic but is limited only to the builder's imagination and talent.
- ▶ Horns will be carved using knives and rasps.

Special Information

- ▶ Rustic but comfortable bunk style lodging. Linens not provided.
- ▶ A health form (no physical required), a list of items to bring, and other information will be sent as soon as your registration form has been received.
- ▶ Participants will receive a detailed class agenda prior to attending.

About the Instructor:

Jimmy Blanks retired from the Department of Game & Inland Fisheries in 2006 after serving over 28 years as a Law Enforcement Officer.

Since then he has devoted his time to building flint lock rifles, hunting pouches, and powder horns, as well as dabbling with a small farm on the Staunton River and fishing on the Chesapeake Bay.
